

Avaya IP Office – System Time Change

The IP Office system is designed to have the time automated so there should be no need to do any programming changes.

The system takes its time and date from the server address on the 'manager' program that should be running.